Nova: 2432

TUESDAY, APRIL 12. 1743.

Yesterday arriv'd Five Mails from Flanders.

Petersbourg, March 21.

THE Lesgis have acquir'd eternal Reputation by the Check they have given to the Arms of the Shah Nadir; they not only repuls'd that Monarch in the several Attacks he made on their Frontier Places, but they harass'd him so excessively in his Retreat, that even his Person was sometimes in Danger. When he arriv'd at Schaumachie, he receiv'd a Recruit of 2540 Men, which having increas'd his Army to 24,735 Men, he resolv'd to attack Karakalatzky, which he executed, but with the Loss however of 5000 Men, and this was his last Effort in the last Campaign. Our Court is extremely embarras'd with the Swedish War, which, it is thought, we shall be at last oblig'd to terminate not much to our Advantage. If, in spite of the Offers our Court shall make, the Swedes persist in their Resolution of continuing the War, or of reviving the Union of Calmar, the Senate is resolv'd to unite the Duchy of Finland for ever to the Russian Empire; and his Imperial Highness will go to Abo, in order to keep his Court there. We hear no more of the Prince of Hesse Homburgh's going to Germany; it is thought the intestine Commotions that have happen'd here, have induc'd his Highness to lay aside all Intentions of thrt Sort.

Stockholm, April 1. We have lately rais'd 60,000 Crowns in the Province of Pomerania, tho' neither in the last, or preceding Reign, any Thing was ever imposed on the Inhabitants of that Country, who are thought to endure Hardships enough besides. There has been printed here, much to the Dissatisfaction of the Government, a Speech of Col. Wrede, who is at the Head of the Deputation from Finland. It was spoken in the Dyet on the 22d of March; therein the Colonel observes, That from the Time the Nation was engaged in prosecuting, without knowing why, or wherefore, the old Ministry, Affairs had never been in any settled Condition; that they had been plung'd into a ruinous and destructive War to gratify the Views of Foreigners, who had secur'd an Interest in their Ministry; that they were now going to do an Act, which Despair might indeed excuse, but could never justify, viz. sacrificing the Independancy of their Crown to that of Denmark. That If, in spite of all that could be said, they were determined to take this outrageous Step, the Duchy of Finland was resolved to adhere to its natural Prince; and since they could obtain him no other Way, to submit to him as Heir apparent to the Empress of Russia. This Speech, at the Time, made no great Impression; but since the People have had time to read it, and to reflect upon it, it has produced much Murmuring, and is thought to have had some Share in postponing the intended Election.

Straubingen, March 31. Messieurs de Montal and Balincourt having left the Army to return to France, we have now no Lieutenant-General here elder than the Count de Saxe; who, on his Return from Dresden, will, as some fancy, have the Command in Chief. We work hard in the Construction of several Bridges. We have already no less than six upon the Danube. Our Spies inform us, that Count Khevenbuller has given Orders for embarking a large Train of Artillery at Passau, but we believe this to be only a Feint, since we are well assured that he intends to begin the Operations of this Campaign on the Side of the Archbishoprick of Saltzburgh; and we are likewise pretty certain, that Prince Lobkowitz's Design is to form the Siege of Egra, both which Projects Marshal Broglio has taken all the Precautions necessary to disappoint. Our Magazines are filling with all imaginable Diligence, and as not only ours, but the Imperial Regiments also, are all very near compleat, we make no manner of Doubt of our opening the Campaign with Reputation in a Fortnight or three Weeks. Marshal Broglio has just now received Advice by an Express, that the Austrian Auxiliaries will infallibly attempt to penetrate into Bavaria, which has thrown us into great Consternation, and it is thought will oblige us to alter our Designs; nay, Orders are already sent for a great Body of Horse to halt, who were in full March to Amberg.

IRELAND.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the highest and most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without any sensible Evacuation or the least Purging, which by an unaccountable Infatuation is generally advised, although always found rather to increase and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much famed and most pleasant Chymical DROPS:

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, do at once find out the true Cause of the Scurvy, and intirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced; and as all who take them in 3 Days time will be convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandring Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages (whence proceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indispositions) no Bitters nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, insomuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they also assuredly and immediately cure the Green-sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, (which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and afloon as taken, make the Pulse pleasantly Lightsom, Brisk and Vigorous to admiration, and as good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation these stomach stim'd and pleasant Chymical Drops have so universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humours, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names: Be careful therefore not to be deceiv'd; but be sure to have the Right, which by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had only at the Gentlewoman's, at the Two Blue Posts, in Haydon-Yard, in the Minories, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The so-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHich in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Vapours in Women, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, ill Fumes, sour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels; which Crudities, offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, Flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits, Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings, and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other, almost innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms, in their sharpest Paroxysms, these so much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specifick in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, a good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves; so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for 3 Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star in Cornhill, below the Royal Exchange, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with printed Directions at large.

LONDON: Printed for M. Cooper, at the Globe in Pater-Noster-Row.
